

LITTLE CHEFS (AGES 3-5) | COLORS, COUNTING & SIMPLE KITCHEN TASKS

Mini Rainbow Pizza Bites

Colorful mini pizzas that let little chefs practice spreading, sprinkling, counting, and creating patterns while an adult handles the hot oven.

PREP

15 min

COOK

10 min

TOTAL

25 min

SERVES

12

INGREDIENTS

- 12 mini whole-wheat English muffin halves or mini naan
- 1/2 cup pizza sauce
- 1 cup shredded mozzarella
- 1/4 cup finely diced bell pepper
- 1/4 cup finely chopped spinach
- 1/4 cup finely shredded carrot
- 1/4 cup pineapple tidbits, finely chopped
- 12 small turkey or vegetable pepperoni pieces, optional

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Heat the oven to 400°F.
- 2 Place the English muffin halves or mini naan on a baking sheet.
- 3 Let the child spread a small amount of pizza sauce onto each one.
- 4 Sprinkle each pizza with mozzarella.
- 5 Add small amounts of colorful toppings to create a rainbow or pattern.
- 6 An adult places the baking sheet in the oven.
- 7 Bake for 8–10 minutes, until the cheese is melted and bubbly.
- 8 An adult removes the baking sheet. Let the pizzas cool before serving.

LEARNING ACTIVITY

Topic: Colors, Counting & Simple Kitchen Tasks

Rainbow Pizza Patterns: Name the colors of the toppings, count how many pieces go on each pizza, and create a repeating color pattern. Compare which toppings are fruits and which are vegetables.